

The background image shows a panoramic view of the Florence skyline during sunset. The iconic Brunelleschi's Dome of the Florence Cathedral is prominent on the right, its red brick surface catching the warm light. To its left is Giotto's Bell Tower, a tall, slender campanile with a spire. In the foreground, the rooftops of numerous smaller buildings and houses are visible, creating a dense urban texture. The sky above is filled with dramatic, orange and yellow clouds, with darker hills visible in the distance.
